

“Language differences can be a barrier, or they can bring people closer together through their mutual efforts to cross the language barrier. Whether it’s personal or business, the effort you make to understand the other person speaks volumes about you.”

– Mark Lamendola

Language Communication Workshop

Thursday, June 28 • 7-8:30 p.m.

City Hall – 450 110th Ave NE

This workshop led by Marci Williams, ESL Coordinator for Hopelink Adult Education, will cover:

- Everyday strategies for communicating with limited-English speakers
- Tips for speaking, listening, writing and understanding
- Exploration of cultural cautions and taboos

Who Should Attend?

- People who want to be culturally sensitive in today’s world and want to communicate respect
- People who speak another language and want to help foster understanding and communication
- You!

Free and Open to the Public

Presented as part of the Neighborhood Forum Series by Neighborhood Outreach, City of Bellevue
For more information contact Julie Ellenhorn, 425-452-6836